

APRIL IS
FAIR HOUSING MONTH
IN NORWALK --
JOIN US IN THE CELEBRATION

Norwalk's Fair Housing Advisory Commission invites you to join us and the Honorable Richard A. Moccia, Mayor, to begin the commemoration and celebration of April 2012 as

National Fair Housing Month

- Location: Norwalk City Hall Atrium
- When: Monday, April 2, 2012, 11:00 a.m.
- Welcome Rev. Dr. Jeffrey A. Ingraham, Chairman
- Proclamation: The Honorable Richard A. Moccia, Mayor
- Presentation: Donation to Norwalk's elementary schools of "The Fair Housing Five and the Haunted House", a children's book about housing discrimination.

This April commemorates 44 years since the passage of the Civil Rights Act of 1968 (the Fair Housing Act), one week after the assassination of Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., and 25 years of service by the Norwalk Fair Housing Office.

Light refreshments. Location is accessible.