

NATIONAL PREPAREDNESS-- BE PART OF IT

Do you enjoy helping others and giving back to your community?

Join the Norwalk Health Department Emergency Response Team! This team of volunteers (18 years and older) live or work in Norwalk or New Canaan and donate their time and expertise to prepare for and respond to emergencies and promote healthy living throughout the year.

Emergency Response Team (ERT) volunteers include community members with both medical and non-medical backgrounds. Interpreters, home makers, students, chaplains, office workers, legal advisors, medical and public health professionals are all needed for key positions in the Emergency Response Team program.

Lend a hand when there's a need, and help the Norwalk Health Department help others. Use your current skills, develop new ones, and gain additional experience, all while meeting other people who share your interests. We provide training and insurance. You provide your time and talents.
